

The Ultimate Car Wash for Your Car

For every individual need of the car owner there are many car washes to choose from. There are car washes that charges more than the usual ten dollars, if you want to pay top dollars for a car wash. Needless to say, these are the best ones around. For your Lamborghini or Ferrari, they are perfect. Yes that is right, they are most suited for exotic and luxury cars since they may cost you nine thousand dollars, more or less. Now for that much, for two weeks you will have to leave the car at the car wash. Think of it as giving your car two weeks vacation in some exotic beach resort. This is because for that amount and for that long, it includes a Pinnacle Miracle Detail, which has 61 stages. It will also receive Zymol Royal wax treatment in 4 layers. Now you know you are getting what you paid for because the Zymol Royal is about $13,000 per container. Of course your car will also have an indoor carpet shampoo and vacuum.

Now if you are not very particular and have no inclination whatsoever in paying $9,000 for a car wash, then there are other good car washes for you. For a reasonable price, there are still good car wash from the many one stop auto car wash. Finding them is the key. Here you simply drive in to the car wash and they will do the job right. Today professional car washing includes technological system, solution and equipment. To keep you coming back, they guarantee an effective and safe car washing service. Some car washes have the high pressure wheel washing and total vehicle coverage. Spray head which has the ability of spraying concentrated blast of water is also now common in car washes. Then they have front and rear tires rotating manifold for the wheel washer. Compared with the drive way car and parking lot washing, they are more environmentally friendly. This is because they have treatment facilities for the waste water.

Now, there are new and easier gadgets you can now use if you want to wash your own car. Some of the latest sponges have the technology of locking the car wash and car wax into them. These sponges allow your car to have the right washes and waxes in no time. There is definitely a perfect car wash for your vehicle today, whatever you decide.
